The Acting County Assembly Clerk: Order No.8, Motions and Bills.

The Deputy Speaker: Honourable members that is the end of what is in our Order paper. Order hon. Members it seems as if am persuaded to adjourn the house. In fact in the morning session we decided that we will have this report but the hon. Members requested for time to go through it. So I think it will be in order to adjourn at this moment to allow hon. Members to go and peruse through this report of the PAC (Public Accounts Committee Report).

(Hon. Anastacia Mwathi Mutunga stood in his place)

The Deputy Speaker: What is it Hon. Mwathi

Hon. Anastacia Mwathi (MCA Mutito/ Kaliku Ward): Am concerned about Tuesday we have adjourn the motion on the PAC report to Tuesday and we know some of the members will be at devolution functions which will be held at our respective Wards. So I think we can check that again thank you.

The Deputy Speaker: Yeah hon. Mwathi the chair has heard what you are saying but the house cannot interfere with its calendar because of another issue which is emanating from somewhere else. Our business is here and we will be on business as usual unless otherwise decided.

So on Tuesday it will be business as usual in our premises here; the other case I don't want to use harsh words here but it may be sideshow. What is it hon. Mwandia?

Hon. Mwandia (MCA Ikutha Ward): Thank you Mr Speaker. Mr Speaker in the morning session there were other copies of the report as an addendum in the original report which was induced by the seconder of the motion. So I hope we will get the copies so that we can peruse thank you.

The Deputy Speaker: yeah Clerks make sure those documents are given to members. So hon. Members I request you to be upstanding we adjourn the house.

(Members stood in their places)

The Deputy Speaker: Hon. Members the house now stands adjourned until tomorrow Thursday at 2: 30 PM.

The County Assembly rose at 2.46 pm
