Mr Speaker while moving the Motion, we appreciate the fact that we are already late in constituting the committees. We should act as fast as possible. Therefore, I request Hon. David Thuvi to second the motion. Thank you.

Hon. David Thuvi: Mr Speaker Sir I wish to second the Motion so that we may be able to move the business of the House forward. Thank you.

The Speaker (Hon. G. Ndotto): Hon. Thuvi, when seconding a Motion, the best thing to do is to stand up and bow. This will enable you to reserve your right to contribute to the Motion later. However, if you rise and speak on the Motion while seconding it, you cannot be allowed to debate on it later. That is for the benefit of all of you. Hon. Members. I now wish to propose the question.

(Question proposed)

Proposing the question means that you can now contribute to the Motion by saying whether you support it or not. You can now argue for or against the Motion before I put the question. Thus, it is your turn now Hon. Members to discuss the Motion before we vote on it.

(Hon. Ndumbu stood up in her place)

The Speaker (Hon. G. Ndotto): Hon. Ndumbu.

Hon. Ndumbu: Mr Speaker Sir I stand to support the Motion. Since we are behind schedule in constitution of House committees, it is time we finalize with the matter so as to start working. I congratulate you Mr. Speaker for being a Member of the committee and hope you will work hard in guiding the House. Thank you.

The Speaker (Hon. G. Ndotto): Silence means I put the question, isn't it? You seem to agree with that. Do I put the question?

(The members answered in the affirmative)

(Question put and agreed to)

Hon. Colleta Kimanzi

The Speaker (Hon. G. Ndotto): Deputy Leader of Majority-Hon. Collettah Kimanzi.

Hon. Members, I think we are through with the Business in the Order Paper. I congratulate you. You have negotiated and nominated Membership to the two committees. You have agreed. I didn't see any objection or problem. You have approved, now we can start Business.

The House Business Committee should meet briefly in my office immediately after this sitting to do one or two things. Secondly, the Clerk is hereby directed to immediately after this sitting convene the first meeting of the Selection Committee to receive from the political parties the names of nominees to the various committee.

The Selection Committee should harmonise the names and to prepare a final list in readiness for a Motion on approval of the membership to the committees to be moved possibly tomorrow afternoon. Is that clear?

(The Members answered in the affirmative)

Members of the House Business Committee will meet briefly in my office to discuss a few issues. Who wants to say something relevant to what we have talked about; not something irrelevant. You are all happy with that, are you not?
